

The City of El Cajon

California Proclamation

“NATIONAL PAYROLL WEEK” September 4-8, 2017

WHEREAS, the American Payroll Association represents over 39 million residents in our state and over 3.3 million businesses and over a million have employees. Needless to say, these taxpayers and businesses contribute millions of dollars to the state and federal treasuries through payroll taxes each year. These taxes include both federal and state withholding, which go toward important civic projects, including roads, schools and parks; and

WHEREAS, the American Payroll Association recognizes the important contribution of the people of this city who work to support the American Dream and highlight the partnership between taxpayers and payroll professionals. Taxpayers and payroll professionals are also partners in supporting the social security and Medicare systems. In addition, companies are now playing an increasingly important role in the enforcement of child support laws by calculating and deducting child support payments from workers' pay; and

WHEREAS, this year's theme of National Payroll Week is "America works because we're working for America." The collection, reporting and payment of payroll taxes by employers is a positive example of what works in America. National Payroll Week is an important step in recognizing and celebrating the contributions of workers in the United States and the payroll professionals who report these workers' earnings, collect their taxes and pay their wages.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Wells, Mayor for the City of El Cajon, together with the City Council, do hereby proclaim the fourth through the eighth of September, two thousand and seventeen to be "NATIONAL PAYROLL WEEK" in the City of El Cajon.

Signed this eighth day of June, two thousand and seventeen.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Bill Wells", is written over a horizontal line.

Mayor